

Workshop on International Higher Education Research
Hosted by Japan Association of Higher Education Research (JAHER)

The Japan Association for Higher Education Research (JAHER) will host a workshop in English to support its members' research and international academic activities. The workshop's purpose is to provide an opportunity to present and discuss research in English and to further enhance research activities by presenting findings and exchanging ideas.

On Saturday, February 4, 2023, five researchers will present their research. International Committee members will comment on each presentation.

The event will follow a high-flex format that will allow for both in-person and online participation. We look forward to the participation of many of you.

Eligibility

The workshop is open for everyone.
