

Contents

From the Editor	1
Addressing the UN Millennium Development Goals	3
Colin Power
World-systems analysis and comparative education for an uncertain future ..	20
Tom Griffiths
Language proficiency and academic achievement in postgraduate business degrees.....	34
Peter Eddey and Chris Baumann
Transnational graduate education in China: Reflections from a longitudinal study	47
Lindy Woodrow
Education for All and cross-border provision of higher education in the Asia- Pacific.....	61
Brian D Denman and Neil Dunstan
Notes on Contributors	80

Contents

Editorial - Education in the Pacific: Rethinking partnerships	1
Eve Coxon and Elizabeth Cassity
Re-framing Pacific regional service delivery: Opportunity spaces for together and apart	7
Kabini Sanga
The wheel keeps turning: A critical reflection on PIC partnerships in educational development.....	23
Christine Fox
Partnership in sector wide approaches	38
Hilary Tolley
Some partners are more equal than others: EFA and Civil Society in Papua New Guinea and Vanuatu education policy processes	54
Alexandra McCormick
It takes two (or more) to tango: Partnerships' within the education sector in Timor-Leste.....	71
Ritesh Shah
Lost in translation: Partnerships for authentic education in Papua New Guinea.....	86
Juliana Mohok McLaughlin
The education Pacific Islands children deserve: The Learn and Play Project in the Solomon Islands	99
Jack Maebuta
Structures, history and hope: A case study of mechanisms that maintain advantage in education	113
Alan Male
Civic education partnerships: Civil society organisations, donors and the state in Fiji	127
Paolo Baleinakorodawa, Rebecca Spence and Micheal O'Loughlin
Community education: An essential dimension in the prevention of violence against women	140
Peggy Fairbairn-Dunlop
Notes on Contributors.....	154